Outreach Programmes

Our students performed various outreach activities in schools of the adopted villages and also in other institutions, among underprivileged children –

- ❖ Our institution had adopted forty Seven tribal children from Murad as a village in March 2016. The children are taught by our NSS students who act as their mentors. Mothers of these children received training on art and craft in the last year and the trained mothers are already in the process of making different items and the college is facilitating the marketing of these products.
- ❖ Various departments of this college have organised several Outreach Programmes in various places to extend a helping hand, using our expertise to solve different social issues through interaction between students and common people.

Publication of college Journals

Two Journals one in Science and the other in Humanities have been published online with ISSN number (online version) and was officially released on 22nd August, 2016. The second volumes of these journals will be published shortly.
